Objectives and investment policy

The investment group pursues a balanced investment strategy with a passive approach in that the investments of the individual classes are based on predefined indices. These comprise Swiss and international bond and equity indices.

Important features:

As a fund of funds, the investment group invests worldwide in equities and bonds. It pursues a passive approach in that the investments of the individual classes are based on predefined indices. The strategic allocations to bonds (55%) and equities (45%) contribute to diversifying risk and increasing potential income.

Derivatives may be used for achieving the investment objective.

Units of the investment group are in principle issued and redeemed on any bank working day in Switzerland.

Capital gains and income of the investment group are not distributed and instead are reinvested.

Additional important information:

Derivatives: The use of derivatives therefore does not result in a leverage effect on the investment group's assets, nor does it correspond to short-selling.

Recommendation on holding period: this investment group is appropriate for investors with a medium-term investment horizon (three to five years) or a longer-term investment horizon.

Risk and reward profile

The historical data used for calculating the risk and profit category cannot serve as a reliable indicator of the future risk profile.

The risk and profit category shown may very well undergo changes. Assignment to a category may change over time.

The lowest risk category cannot be equated with a risk-free investment.

Reasons for being assigned to the risk and profit category:

- Interest-rate curve
- Interest-rate increase
- Price fluctuations in the share market and company-specific price fluctuations
- Foreign currency risks

There is no capital guarantee and no capital protection.

Other risks that are material to the investment group and not adequately covered by the aforementioned indicator:

- Credit risks because substantial investments are made in interest-bearing securities whose repayment may be cancelled.
